THE RACING OF THE PRESENT YEAR'S CHAMPION THREE-YEAR-OLD

The RACING OF THE PRESENT YEAR'S CHAMPION THREE-YEAR-OLD

From his racing as a two-year-old it could not easily be discerned that Roamer was destined to be the clark the country of the c three-year-old, but he had no license to beat Roamer. This the latter proved conclusively in his next and last race of the year, which took place at Laurel, October 10, in the Washington Handicap, at a mile and an eighth. It was a small, but select, field, the starters being Roamer, 124 pounds; Tartar, 102; Buskin, 110; Gainer, 115; Stromboll, 124, and Robert Bradley, 105. In one of the most amazing displays of speed, stamina and weight-cerrying power ever witnessed anywhere, Roamer rushed into the lead at once and running the first quarter in 22%, the half in 46%, three-quarters in 1:11% and mile in 1:36%, wound up ye covering the full distance in the unprecedented time of 1:49% and never gave the others a chance. Tartar ran the race of his life and was second, with Buskin third, but Stromboll was outpaced all the way. Should all go well with him, Roamer should do some great things in racing next year, especially over long distances. His ancestry is notably rich in natural stayers and he evidently does not fail in this family characteristic. His record to date and his remarkable pedigree are as follows:

CLOSE FINISH IN HANDICAP

HESTER PRYNNE BEATS TRUE AS STEEL BY A HEAD AT HAVRE DE GRACE.

Housemaid, Top Weight of Race, Was Right There, Too-Lady Rotha Returns to Winning Form in the Caroline Handicap.

Baltimore, Md., November 20,—The Caroline Handicap was the feature of a well-balanced card offered to the patrons of racing at Havre de Grace this afternoon. The stake brought out a well-balanced lot of juveniles, with Andrew Miller's Lady Rotha ruling the popular choice. She fully justified the confidence reposed in her by winning by a comfortable margin, with Broom Flower second and Manie K. third. But four faced the starter, Celto being withdrawn. Lady Rotha had disposed of her opposition in entering the homestretch and was gradually increasing her advantage in the final furlong. Broom Flower, a cast-off from the Whitney stable, was a factor from the start. Manie K. was on the inside all the way and suffered sharp interference as the field swung to the turn from the backstretch. Lady Barbary, from the R. F. Carman stable, broke flatfooted and was exhausted in closing a big gap. The second race of the day, a handleap for all ages, over the five and a haif furlongs course, resulted in a keen stretch struggle in which the winner, the Montpelier Stable's Hester Prynne, came from behind to beat True as Steel a short head, with Housemaid a like distance behind the second horse. The winner was off slowly and outtum to the stretch turn, where she was taken to the outside and finished with a keen burst of speed. True as Steel was a forward factor all the way and outlasted the topweight, Housemaid, in the final drive. The latter weakened in the last lifty yards under the heavy impost she was asked to shoulder.

Weather conditions were again unfavorable, a cold wind from the Susquehanna river sweeping the course and making it uncomfortable for the patrons. Topcoats were in demand. The racing was marked by close and exciting finishes furnished by large and well-balanced fields. Scratches were not as numerous as might have been expected. The track was in good shape.

Word was received today that Charles Dwyer would succeed H. U. Homan as patrol judge at Juarez this coming winter. Mr. Homan resumed his duttes today as cle

Mexican Course May Have Greater Number of Horses Than It Had Last Winter.

El Paso, Tex., November 20.—With the addition of two new winter race courses asking for the patronage of the horsemen, there was a question at one time as to whether there would be as many thoroughbreds quartered at the Juarez race course this winter as there were last year, when over 800 wintered there. Just what a hold the track across the river has upon the horsemen and the place it occupies in the turf world at present is demonstrated by the way the horsemen have patronized it this season. For the past two weeks there has been a steady stream of thoroughbreds arriving at the course from different sections of the country, rapidly swelling the already large number previously quartered there, and it now looks as if last year's figures may be exceeded.

The latest arrivals include Mrs. H. Armstrong,

Former jockey Carroll Shilling, recognized as America's premier race rider of recent years, was an arrival yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Shilling. The former crack rider, who is still light enough to don the silks, has branched out as a trainer this year, baving a stable which he races in the name of his wife, and with which he has scored some success already. His horses have been quartered at the course for about a week.—Among them is the popular local favorite, Belle of Bryn Mawr.

JUDGE MURPHY AT HOME

St. Louis, Mo.. November 20.—Judge Joseph A. Murphy, who is to manage the winter race meeting at New Orleans, has returned from the east, and has taken up with the business interests of St. Louis the movement for a legal restoration of racing in Missouri by the passage of a new bill at the January session of the General Assembly, Judge Murphy's proposal in the state is to have the Legislature enact a law that will recognize horse racing in common with harness racing, stock exhibitions, breeding and the general promotion of first-class stock in the state.

Conditions for the first elght days of racing at the Fair Grounds in New Orleans have been mailed, and the book will be in the hands of the printer in a few days.

the book will be in the hands of the printer in a few days.

Judge Murphy found his desk littered with inquiries about the New Orleans movement. Dr. A. W. McAlester, professor emeritus of the University of Missouri, notified him that he will send eight horses of his own breeding to New Orleans. At his farm Dr. McAlester has Sandringham, a brother to two English Derby winners. The horse was breed by the late King Edward. Among the letters awaiting Judge Murphy was one from Francis Ne.son, presiding judge on the Canadian tracks and sporting editor of the Toronto Globe. In it Judge Nelson said:

"I find that everywhere horsemen are keen for the reopening at New Orleans, which is a natural racing point for the winter. You will be surprised at the number of Canadians who take winter holidays who are anxious to spend them in the Crescent City."

EMIL HERZ AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky.. November 20.—Endl Herz is here today as the guest of J. O. Keene. Mr. Herz, it will be remembered, was partner of C. C. (Boots) Durnell in a racing stable in this country a dozen years ago. McChesney being the most distinguished performer in the string. He has since been residing abroad, the last five years in England, from which country he recently arrived. He will spend the winter in and about Louisville. He may look after seven horses of his friend. John Kelly, which were brought over by Phil T. China, and now in charge of Herman R. Brandt at Churchill Downs. They are Short Grass, Runnymede, Glencairn, Devil Fish, Hanworth, Lady Colonist and North Light.

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS

Berlin aunounces that the great battle in west Poland is in full progress. Official reports say that no decision has been reached, and no definite details are known of the titanic struggle, which far overshadows the conflict on the west front. The engagements previously reported eastward of the Mazurian lakes, at Soldau, Lipno, Wlocławek and Cracow, seem to have been merely preliminaries to a general engagement along the whole line. The German bulletin mentions fighting northward of Lodz, while the Austrias report the advance of their army northward from Crocaw, and it is evident that the dual armies and the Russians are engaged in the center along a north and south line. Hence it seems that the Teutonic allies are leveling a concentric attack from three directions against the Russian forces. Newspaper critics interpret conditions as generally favorable to the Austro-Germans and assert that the German advance beyond Mlawa and the vicinity of Plock has eliminated danger of an invasion of East and West Prussia except by such cavalry forces as are operating northward of Eydtkulmen, in East Prussia, on the Russian border. These, however, are only raiders. Maj, Moraht, the military critic of the Tageblatt, declares that Gen. von Hindenberg's advance south of the Vistula has exercised effective pressure on the whole Russan right wing and deflected it southward from its natural line of retreat on Warsaw. The chief fighting is now proceeding to the southeast and east of Kutno, between Lodz and Lowicz, on the Bezura river.

east and east of Kutno, between Lodz and Lowicz, on the Bezura river.

Tremendous pressure is being exerted on the al lled line from Ypres southward to La Bassee, in France. It now appears that Armentieres may be leveled as Nieuport and Dixmude have been in the attempt of the Germans to find a weak spot in the lines of the French and British through which to break through toward the coast. A portion of the city already has been destroyed by the bombardment of the Germans, and a large section of the place is in flames. The British troops north of Arras have launched vigorous counter offensive movements against the Germans. A constant artillery fire has been kept up, and determined charges by the Germans repulsed at the very brink of the trenches. The British have then endeavored to advance, but their forward movement has been slow and uncertain. Quiet reigned Thursday in West Flanders. The sudden and violent coming of winter caused a suspension of hostilities. The Ysor region now has a temperature like that of the New England coast on a bleak windy December day. In this weather the armies are compelled to live in a devastated territory, where there are no houses to give shelter or warmth. Physical numbers, not military exhaustion, has caused the temporary lull in the battle. Many cannon and automobiles have been lost in new inundations.

Public interest in London is now largely centered in the battle between the Russians and Germans ness, not military exhaustion, has caused the temporary luli in the battle. Many cannon and automobiles have been lost in new inundations.

Public interest in London is now largely centered in the battle between the Russians and Germans between the Vistula and Warta rivers in Poland, as it is believed the result of the fighting there will have a marked effect on the operations elsewhere and on the duration of the war. All that is definitely known is that the Russian advance guard, consisting largely of cavalry, which advanced to the German frontier after the battle at Warsaw, met superior forces of the enemy and has been compelled to fall, back more than half the distance covered in the advance. The Germans are sending strong forces of men and guns into the country between the two rivers, where the battle must be fought. The Germans evidently are hopping that in this confined area the Russians will not be able to deploy their enormous forces to advantage at they have done in practically all the previous battles. Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander in chief, however, can choose his own ground for the battle, and it is probable he will select it afar away from the German lines of communications as he can. In Galicia, before Cracow, and in East Prussia the Russians are pushing their advantage, apparently disregarding the fact that their center has been compelled to fall back.

The French official communication says that Thursday there were hardly any lufantry attacks on the part of the enemy in Flanders and that their artillery activity also was largely reduced. The text of the communication follows: "The day of Nov. 19 was marked by an almost total absence of infantry attacks on the part of the enemy at the same time, their artillery fire was much less vicent than on the afternoon of Nov 18. To the north the weather has been bad and snow has fallen. All the region of the Yesr canal to the east of Dixmude is invaded by the waters. In front of Ramscapelle we have withdrawn from the water have been no importa wing the Germans have reoccupied the destroyed section of Chauvoncourt. Farther to the east we have made some progress."

The following efficial communication was issued from Russian general headquarters: "On the left bank of the Vistula the action has developed during the last few days in two regions—on the front between the Vistula and the Warta and on the line between Czenstochowa and Cracow. These combats have taken on a character of extreme ferocity, presenting generally a continuous offensive and defensive alternately. In East Prussia our troops are attacking positions strongly established. East of Angerburg the German trenches are supplied with triple wire entanglements. We have taken possession of some of these positions, seven versts (about five miles) east of Angerburg, and the passage between Lakes Bouvelno and Yrkloy, capturing nineteen cannon, six rapid firers and several hundred prisoners. In west Galicia our offensive continues."

A preparation which, it is said, will stop almost instantly the flow of blood from a wound has been invented by Prof. Theordor Kocher of Berne, who was awarded the Nobel prize for surgery in 1912, and his assistant, Dr. A. Ponce. The new preparation is called coagulen. It is in the form of a powder and is dissolved in water before being applied to a wound. The discoverers of coagulen have made a gift of their invention to the armies in the field and have sent large quantities of the powder to the surgical headquarters of both the German and French armies. The discovery is regarded by medical men as likely to save the lives of thousands of soldlers, since it can be applied by untrained hands, so that the wounded man himself or his comrade might use the solution.

Strong Russian forces that reached the region of Soldau in their recent advance from Mlawa into East Prussia have been driven back sixty miles to the river Bug, it was announced at Berlin, and the German troops in their pursuit are approaching the fortress of Novo Georgievsk, northwest of Kurno and west of Lowie advance again on Warsaw.

The German troops have repulsed a French attack in the neighborhood of Verdun, France, and the Russian retreat in northwestern Poland continues, according to an official communication issued by the German general army headquarters. The text of the official statement reads: "In West Flanders and in north France no appreciable change in the situation has taken place. Heavy rains and snows, which first soaked and then partly froze the ground, have made our movements difficult. A French attack at Combre to the southeast of Verdun was repulsed."

News from the Adriatic says that the French

Verdun was repulsed."

News from the Adriatic says that the French cruiser Waldeck Rousseau has sunk another Austrian submarine. The enemy seems to have made a special effort to attack this warship. During a recent cruise of only four days the cruiser had to run quite a gauntlet of aeroplane, submarine, and torpedo boat attacks. It not only came through them unscathed but with the honors on its side, for besides sinking the submarine it chased and badly battered a flotilla of seventeen hostile destroyers.

The British official pures bureau has issued the

THE BEST HORSE !- A QUESTION OF MERIT.

We often hear the question put, "Which was the est horse that ever ran?" Sometime ago the Lonbest horse that ever ran?" Sometime ago the London Sporting Times asked a number of racing men to give their opinion of what they considered the best horse they had ever seen, and these, together with opinions expressed by other prominent racing men, gave some rather interesting results.

Out of seventy-seven opinions expressed. Ormonde, with twenty-eight votes, headed the list, followed by St. Simon with nine: Gladiateur, six; Persimmon, Bayardô, Springfield and Virago, three each; Isinglass and Spearmint, two each.

CURTIS GUNN'S WIDOW LOSES POINT.

Some characteristics of the late Curtis A. Gunn. stock exchange and racing man cropped out in the hearing brought by the Hibernian Banking association to discover securities of the estate. DOMINANT LINES IN RREEDING

The way in which the line of Galopin is extending all the world over, mainly through the channel of St. Simon, is really marvelous. Glancing at statistics from Australia, South Africa, and South America, the vitality and reproductive power of that family—which for a long time threatened to render all other lines subscrient to it in this country—has been abundantly shown in the past year or two. In Australia, for example, no fewer than five members of the Galopin tribe tinchisive of four of St. Simon descent) figured in the leading dozen at the end of the year which terminated ion sire, Mulster, which is by Bill of Portlandmor of St. Simon, which is by Bill of Portlandmor of St. Simon, headed the list with the big total of 31,592 sovereigns. Third came Fortinants, also a grandson of St. Simon (via St. Frusquin), with 16,734 sovereigns to his credit, while although the next St. Simon line horse, Bobadil (son of Bill of Portland), was only eighth he had over 12,000 sovereigns credited to him by means of his winning stock. Tenth came Gratfon (son of Galopin), and the fifth horse of the line was St. Alwyne, which finished twelfth, The last two totaled respectively nearly 11,000 sovereigns and over 9,000 sovereigndants of Galopin bepresented in the winning list, thirteen of which were imported stallions, the remainder being either in England or Ireland. Turning to South Africa, eight stallions, the remainder being either in England or Ireland. Turning to South Africa, eight stallions tracing to Galopin chiefly via St. Simon figure in the first twenty. Of these Veronese (by Donovan, son of Galopin posses fifth, St. Maurice sixth, Collar seventh, and Sidus eighth. STUD FEES IN ENGLAND.

A recent issue of the "Bloodstock Breeders' Review" contained an article in which comparison of stallion fees of fifty years ago with those of the present day was instituted. Fifty years ago the highest fee for any stallion in England was the $250 commanded by Voltigeur, no other being above $200, while this year fourty-four stallions were advertised at $490 or over. The list of these is as follows:

at $490 or over. The list	of these is as follows:

In addition to Voltigeur	, the services of six other

In addition to Voltigeur, the services of six other Derby winners were available in 1864. These were: Caractaeus, $160; Kettledrum, $150; Musjid, $75; Thornanby, $150; Wild Dayrell, $150, and Ellingron, $75. On the other hand, the lowest fee charged for any Derby winner now at the stud in the old country is $490, for $1. Amant. The fees of other prominent stallions in 1864 were: Buccaneer, $60; Gemma d! Verey, $150; Gunboat, $100; Lifeboat, $100; Oxford, $60; The Marquis, $100; Leamington, $75; Ratanlan, $200; Skirnisher, $60; Parmesan, $76; St. Albans, $125, and Warlock, $190. The difference may appear remarkable, but fifty years ago "60 would have been a tremendous price for an stallion, whereas there are now some in England it would take over $250,000 to buy. Still, the margin between $250, and $2,000 is so great as to lead itself to the idea that present-day values in England in respect to stud fees are inflated.

J. W., Cleveland, O. Apparently it was in time W. L. and P. B., Chicago. Yes, unless the other party to the affair operates under the rule that added starters run for him.

S. S. P. The same system of betting as is used in New York is to be tried at New Orleans—be tween individuals, transactions without record.

Louisville Post and F. J., Louisville, Ky. Scorpio ran in but four jumping races during his long career. He did not win any, but was third twice. All these races were at Harlem in 1902 and in Ed. Trotter's colors.
